Vorbemerkung

Es ist das Anliegen dieser an der Sektion Asienwissenschaften der Humboldt-Universität erarbeiteten Bibliographie, einen Überblick zu vermitteln über Materialien der Vereinigten Staaten zu ihrer Asienstrategie im Zeitraum von 1945 - 1980. Bei der Erfassung der Titel ging es weniger um die Darstellung der bilateralen Beziehungen der Vereinigten Staaten zu Ländern Asiens, sondern vielmehr darum, die Herausbildung der amerikanischen Asienstrategie als Teil der sich nach 1945 entwickelnden konterrevolutionären und antisozialistischen Klassenstrategie des Imperialismus zu verdeutlichen.

In Anbetracht der Vielfalt und des Umfanges der für diesen Zeitraum vorliegenden Materialien der Vereinigten Staaten kann nicht der Anspruch auf Vollständigkeit erhoben werden. Die Auswahl konzentrierte sich vorrangig auf Materialien zu militärstrategischen Aspekten.

Die vorliegenden Dokumente wurden in der Reihenfolge ihres Erscheinungsjahres aufgeführt, wobei innerhalb des jeweiligen Jahres auf eine chronologische Abfolge verzichtet wurde. Die außerdem vorgenommene Gruppierung in größere Zeitabschnitte erfolgte, um annähernd jene Perioden zu umreißen in denen von einer Wandlung der amerikanischen Strategie gesprochen werden kann, so daß dem Leser damit auch die Veränderungen in der Strategie des USA-Imperialismus gegenüber den Ländern Asiens verdeutlicht werden.
